

Mary's Dowry

Mary loved Jesus and gave her most valuable possession, the cherished dowry of the family, which was set aside to be bestowed upon the prospective Bridegroom.

She took it and broke it, and poured out the expensive oil over Jesus' feet along with her tears. Then, she dried them with her beautiful hair.

In doing this she gave all she ever hoped to have to the one she loved, even though she knew in her heart that he might never belong to her. Yet she wanted no other. Jesus is worth all we have and ever hope to be!

Greater Love hath no man than he lay down his life for another!

JoyMarie