

Spirit And Soul Reunited- by Gary Sigler

God's ultimate intention is incarnation. When our soul begins to submit to our spirit, and they become one, we begin to realize in the deepest recesses of our being that we are one with God, and that we are the manifestation of God on this earth. As we experience being one with God our soul is re-united to our spirit in oneness, so that once again God will walk and live and breathe and function in all of His beauty in these temples.

No longer will we take thought for what we shall eat or what we shall drink or what we shall put on. But Christ, as the living water, will flow out of our innermost being. We realize the truth of the Apostle Paul's word, "He that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit." We realize that as we speak, it is God speaking. As we minister the Word, it is God speaking. No longer are we fearful.

There was a time when I was so frightened that I couldn't even stand up amongst a group of people in church and give a testimony. Oh, but once that living water begins to flow, once Christ begins to be formed in us, once that love of God begins to fill us, all fear just falls at our feet. I find now that I can stand before two or three, or I can stand before thousands with no fear. For I know that out of my innermost being will flow those living waters that will bring healing and restoration. Out of my innermost being will flow words of spirit and life that will enter into the hearts of those who are hearing and begin to cause that seed of life that is deep within them to begin to spring forth.

There is a great awakening taking place on the earth today. People from all tongues, all nations, all cultures, and all religions are feeling the drawing of God. The barriers of religious walls are being torn down, and people are beginning to flow together in love realizing that intellectual doctrines do not unify, but only divide. Paul said many years ago not to let the winds of doctrines blow you away from the reality of Christ. Paul said in Ephesians 4 and 13, "Until we all arrive in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ: that we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the slight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive."

So we see here that doctrine can be a wind that will carry you away from the reality of Christ. You can believe so strongly in a doctrine that you will let it carry you away from the reality of Christ, because you will not fellowship with someone else who is not in agreement with what you believe.

There are many winds of doctrine in the in the system of Christianity today. There are so many doctrines that divide. There are so many different belief systems. And until we realize that it is not what we believe intellectually, that makes us one, but it is in our hearts to unconditionally embrace all of humanity, knowing that each and every individual has that spark of divine life.

Jesus was that true light that lights every man that comes into the world, and it is our privilege to speak life and not death. It is our privilege to speak life and not doctrine. It is our privilege to speak words that will cause the spirit on the inside of humanity to ignite and to begin to rise up so that they too begin to have the revelation of the reality of being a son or daughter of God. Doctrine, in most cases in Christianity, has been placed in a higher position than unconditional love.
