GOD STILL LOVES THE WORLD

No.285

OUR CHANGING WORLD

As a new year begins, God's Holy Spirit is uttering exciting news, stirring up our hearts. The Word that was a light shining in the dark place of our spirits, has now illuminated our minds and the Day has arisen in our hearts! Now we perceive that, within us is the Word that holds the entire plan of God for the world, and that it is that very Word which is changing our world today.

Indeed, one does not need to be a visionary or a great discerner of things to come, to note that our world is drastically changing. The changes are taking place in our weather, in our societies and in entire populations as well. Christians and scientists alike are advancing reasons and theories for all of this, and many are offering ways to curb the speed of the changes, but the changes are rolling in like a flood.

As for us, we stand on the foundation that is laid within us and that is, "Jesus Christ, the Word of God, the only enduring, never-ending power that NEVER CHANGES". "By faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear." (Heb.11: 3b)

In Strong's Concordance Dictionary, the word "framed" means "completed." It is by God's Word that the worlds continue to change until they are completed. There is no scientific proof of this, we know it by faith and our faith is the substance of these things. Over time, as we walk with God's Holy Spirit and are taught of Him, He reveals Himself to us and we come to "..know whom we have believed and we are persuaded that he is able to keep that which we have committed unto him against that day." (II Tim.1: 12) To every man is dealt a measure of faith. "...think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith." (Rom.12: 6b) By hearing the Word of God, faith grows and becomes our blessed assurance.

And so we know by faith that it was God's Word who spoke the world into existence, and that it is God's Word who completes the world. We know that Jesus Christ was the Word made flesh, and that through His Spirit, He (the Word) is made flesh in us.

The Lord by His Spirit has walked us through our daily fires, and our faith has been tested and re-inforced so that things which are invisible are now a reality in our hearts and minds.

Through the Spirit we know that the powers which are in the invisible realm of spirit (heavens) are the forces that move the events of the earth. The Spirit spoke through Peter and said, "The heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word, are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men." (IIPet.3:7)

When Peter spoke these words, the powers that were ruling the earth, were able to continue without interference from the Lord. But Peter's prophecy is plain, that the day would come when these heavens and earth were going to go through a fire that would absolutely change everything.

From the time Jesus cried out, "It is finished!" until the time when the finished product appears, the powers that be have been kept in store and no changes have been seen. Peter explained that this is not because our God is slack concerning His promises, but because “..He is long-suffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.” (II Pet.3:9)

And so for some two-thousand years, God has been lenient toward man, and has given him opportunity to repent and change his ways. At the same time, the Lord has been building His church and preparing the sons that are formed in her womb. This, we can declare unequivocally because we have been of those who came out of man's systems and have been gathered by His Spirit.

An anonymous person once said that a man with an experience is never at the mercy of an argument. This is a word of wisdom indeed, for God Himself takes us through the experience, that we might be grounded in the truth and never waver. So we speak by the faith which has been tested through the fire of our experiences.

John declares, that his witness is true because he saw Jesus with his own eyes, but it was not touching the physical man that opened his eyes, it was the Word of life in Jesus that gave John his true testimony. “That which we have seen from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the Word of life.” “(I Jn.1:1)

HIS WITNESSES ARE ARISING

We know that the Word of God is the power that moves the world and keeps all things together. Before the worlds were, it was the Son who spoke the Word that formed the heavens and the earth. In the man Jesus, the same Word was made flesh. Since then, the same Word is being made flesh in a people chosen to be His body. The Word that was Jesus, riled up the powers that were then, and the same Word is riling up the rulers of the world now, for the serpent has made his abode in the minds and hearts of man.

The powers that were then, crucified the Lord of glory. Over time, the Lord has gathered His own and they have uttered His Word as He directed, but each time, they have ended up either literally killed or totally unable to speak the Word of truth among men.

And so, God's witnesses have been laying dead in the streets of the city. “And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that ascended out of the bottomless pit shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them. And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is Sodom, and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified.” (Rev.11:7-8)

This is speaking of His two witnesses. They are neither Moses and Elijah nor Moses and Enoch as some believe, the two witnesses are the Spirit and the Word, the Father and the Son, in His Body in the world. The saints of the first church were martyred because of their witness. As time went on, people became a little more civilized, so the enemy simply killed the Word or replaced it by doctrines created out of their leaders' imaginations. This has been the work of Satan, the great deceiver and crafty liar, who is the religious spirit that has ruled this world.

And so the true Word of God has been among men all along, but it has been banned from the people. The witnesses are “dead in the street”. This has been going on for two thousand or so years. But while Christ's witnesses have been dead to the world, they have been very much alive unto Him.

During this time, His Holy Spirit has been working “underground” in the hearts of His elect, getting them ready to arise and do a new thing in the world. Indeed, He is raising up His witnesses, and now we are seeing the entire world under the effect of that Word. The powers that be in the world thought that these witnesses had been silenced for good and would no longer bother them, but what they did not know is that while the witnesses were dead to them, they were very much alive in the Spirit. They were being taught of God in their hiding places. They were being cleansed and prepared for THAT DAY.

While most people are not aware of what is taking place in the realm of God's Spirit, the witnesses are being raised in power. They have no need of pulpits or of any devices to speak the powerful Word of God that is pulling down the Babel Towers of this world. They only have to hear from their Father, believe, and speak forth what they heard to whoever the Lord brings to them or to no one in particular. It is an amazing "Tour de Force!" A stroke of Genius! From the Lord Himself. Hallelujah!

All that He has wrought has been in preparation for this Day. A few months ago I mentioned a dream that has now taken greater significance. In the dream, "I had been leading a group of people to my house. We were now at the door of the utility room in the back. I knew that the power had not yet been turned on in the house, and I was waiting to hear the air-conditioner, refrigerator and all the things that hum when they begin to run. My hand was on the doorknob and all were ready to go in." End of dream.

I believe that this refers to the power of God's Word that is being turned on in His house (His Body). Since then, we have experienced some of His Word with power, and we are beginning to see how it works. Indeed, the power has now been turned on. The sons have ascended. They have been caught up to the throne of God.

This means that, through the Christ in us, the Father is now speaking the words that are not only changing us, but also our country and the worlds. We can be in the privacy of our own bedrooms, and speak the Word that accomplishes whatever it was sent to do anywhere in the earth.

As we are entering the age to come, our God is dealing mightily with the world. To understand this, we need to be aware of the dreams and prophecies that He has been speaking throughout the Body of Christ recently. We know that in Christendom there are many false prophets, but there are also some who are true.

THE SPOKEN WORD

"God, who at sundry times and in divers manners

spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he has appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds." (Heb.1:1-2)

God has been speaking to man from the beginning of creation, but in times past, He spoke through chosen, anointed men or women. "Hear now my words: if there be a prophet among you, I the Lord will make myself known unto him in a vision, and will speak unto him in a dream." (Num.12: 6) God communicated with His prophets through dreams and visions.

In Old Testament times, the dreams were powerful and they were directed at kings and leaders of nations. The prophet's dreams are not always given to us, but the prophets were sent with the Word of God that they had most likely heard in their dreams.

There are no longer prophets as in the Old Testament but God makes known what He is going to do through the Son, Christ in His body. He speaks through the Holy Spirit by means of revelations and often He speaks through dreams as well. It was the Son who was with God in the beginning, who spoke the Word that framed the worlds and it is the Son in His body today who is speaking the Word that is finishing the work.

The Son is the Word that thoroughly completes the worlds. The Son is the Word who came in Jesus, the "enchristed One." He is the Christ who is the mystery that was hid, and is now being revealed in us. He is the voice of God in the world today.

God has chosen us for His habitation and He has drawn us unto Himself. We are in Christ who is the Word, so the words that we hear from the Father and that we speak, are the words that are completing the worlds. The Word that was once spoken through the prophets is now spoken by the sons who hear from the Holy Spirit. The Spirit speaks to the sons by means of revelations or through dreams as well.

In the past, God spoke His Word to us and it was as a prophecy, "It shall come to pass...But the time is now upon us when the Word that God speaks to us has the power to accomplish it NOW. This is what is happening, as the words of the witnesses that were laying dead in the streets are now arising in power.

In time past, we may have thought that the “manifestation” of the sons of God would consist of Christians being sent to and fro to heal the sick and raise the dead. Jesus did that, but He said, “Greater works than these shall ye do!” Indeed the Word that is given to the sons today is the Word that is touching the entire sick and dying world.

CASE IN POINT

The power of the spoken Word through the sons has never been so clearly felt and seen as it was in the election process that took place in our country in the past two years. To one whose ears are not attuned to what the Lord is doing, it was just a year of chaos and confusion, but to all who hear from the Lord and have the lively hope of His appearing working within them, it was a year when something new and of great value took place.

It all began in 2015 when the Lord gave me a dream concerning who was to be the next president of the United States. Dreams involving political matters are usually not the norm for me. However it is not the first time it happened. When I was fourteen years old in Paris, I dreamed of what turned out to be the liberation of Europe by the American army. I actually saw soldiers coming into France. I saw them in planes, wearing uniforms that I had never seen before. I especially noticed their blue eyes. Later, when I actually saw the GIs coming into Paris, I knew they were the ones in my dream.

That dream came just before the event took place on June 6, 1944. It was Dday. I told my father and he said to tell no one. For obvious reason, the debarkation was known only by General Eisenhower and the few close to him.

I also once dreamed that Ronald Reagan was to be the next president. This was before he ran for the office. I thought, this man had been an actor and surely would not try to be president. I also dreamed that George W. Bush would win the second term. Then when the debates concerning the popular vote and the electoral vote came up, some thought that he was losing, but again the Lord had spoken.

I have had many dreams concerning my own life or the Body of Christ, but about the politics of this world, I have only had these few. Sometimes, the Lord has used political figures as types in dreams, but as the campaign unfolded, it was clear that this was actually about Donald Trump. During the time of the entire campaign, I had five dreams keeping me abreast of what the Lord was doing to keep this man on track.

This was the first dream, “I was living on a beautiful estate in a bright and clean country. It was almost harvest time and soon we would be reaping beautiful vegetables. Some of the green beans were ready to pick. Near my dwelling there was an elevated area. I could see the opulent office of a very important man. His desk and chair were huge and luxurious. The man sitting at the desk was Donald Trump.

Then I see that in the field in front of the building, a huge garbage disposal system had been installed beneath the ground. The enormous lid was on top of the ground and would come up and open wide to gobble up any and all the garbage that began flying around from all directions. This kept increasing but each time, the huge lid opened up and sucked in all the garbage. Tirelessly, it kept opening and closing while chewing up all the garbage that kept coming.” End of dream.

When I awoke, I had no idea as to the real meaning of this dream or as to how it would come to pass, but as the campaign played out, it was obvious that the Lord had provided a way to keep His man from being struck down by what the Spirit called “garbage.” Indeed, “garbage” began to fly from all directions but as the Lord ordained, it all ended in the “heavenly garbage disposal.” It was amazing how nothing that anyone said, not even himself, was able to stop this man from his goal. I also knew that the opulent office and desk in the dream spoke of the Presidency of the United States and that God had anointed Donald Trump for it at this time. I had no bias, no knowledge of politics, no personal opinion, nothing to lose or to gain, but I knew that this was a Word from the Lord.

I shared this dream with a few close ones. At the same time, I began to receive similar dreams and prophecies that others in the Body of Christ had also received from the Lord. The Word had been out for a long time indeed. God said that He would do nothing without first revealing it to His servants the prophets; and this He did indeed. “Surely the Lord God will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets.” (Amos 3:9)

I said all this to say this, today, God's speaks in the Son. The Son is the Prophet, Teacher, Shepherd and all that He needs to be at the time. The Son is the Word made flesh in the earth today. He is arising in His body. Jesus said that there were yet greater works to be done. He did only what He saw His Father do and the time for greater works was not yet. But now the time is here, and the Son in His body (the sons) are hearing the Father speaks.

The dreams that came through the sons in the election, are His Word of power. He sent them to us, we received them, believed them, spoke them forth and they came to pass. They accomplished that for which they were sent. The Word of God in the sons is what put Mr. Trump in the seat of the presidency. The defeated ones are in shock. They were so sure they would win. They are trying to figure out what went wrong or who plotted against them. But no matter how they try to figure it out, they will never come to the answer they seek.

The Bible teaches that God has always been in charge of the world's leaders, but because of His long-suffering, He gave them a lot of rope. However, He has now raised His Word with power in His sons, and they cannot be stopped. They have no organization, no pulpits, no meeting places anywhere. They work by the Spirit, and no one knows who is who. They are protected by the angels of the Lord and no one can touch them to harm them.

When they speak the Word they hear from the Father, the powers that be are confused and they fall.

The trump of God is heard in the land. The Day of darkness and gloominess has come upon the world. Joel's describes the vision of that Day, “The Lord shall utter his voice before his army: for his camp is very great: for he is strong (Christ) who executeth his word: for the day of the Lord is great and very terrible; and who can abide it?” (Joel 2: 11)

The Day of the Lord is the brightness of His appearing, when He reveals the works of darkness that they may be destroyed by fire of His presence. This is what we are seeing in our world today. This is all the work of our God, and it will not stop until all is accomplished. By the power of His spoken Word, our God is removing by fire all that proceeds from the carnal minds of man. He is replacing it by His kingdom (His rule) in the hearts of man (the earth) as it is ordained in His Word.

We have already stepped into the age to come and the Lord who was held in the invisible realm of spirit, is now arising to restore all things, as the prophets declared. “Jesus Christ, whom the heaven must received until the times of restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the worlds began.” (Acts 3: 21)

OUR CHRIST IDENTITY

As soon as we hear the call and turn to the Lord Jesus Christ, He quickens our spirits and we begin our journey as babes in Christ. It is then that the struggle begins within our beings, as the old man of the flesh flexes his muscles to keep his control over our minds and hearts.

Soon after we begin our walk in Christ, we become aware of the duality of our being. Paul designates these as “the inner man of the spirit” and the “outer man of the flesh”. He found that as long as he was in the body of this death, he had to struggle against the evil that was present with him.

He cried out, “O wretched man that I am! Who shall deliver me from the body of this death?” (Rom.7: 24) The answer is not that he should die and go to heaven...the answer was “Through Jesus Christ our Lord!” Paul was struggling for his true identity. The struggle for our true identity is huge. James declares, “A double-minded man is unstable in all his ways.” (Jms.1:8) He also exhorts, “...purify your hearts, ye double-minded.” (Jms.4: 8b)

Paul explains, “For I delight in the law of God after the inward man: But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of MY MIND, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members.” (Rom.7: 22-23) This is our double-minded problem.

Our part is to choose daily, which is our true identity. On whom do we rely? Who do we believe? Our enemy is a thief and a robber. He is out to rob us of what belongs to us in Christ. The last books of Deuteronomy are filled with God's commandments to Joshua as they were about to go up into their promised land. These words are powerful for us, as the Christ within is poised to appear and to possess His land in us, and also in the world.

“I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live: That thou mayest love the Lord thy God, and that thou mayest obey his voice, and that thou mayest cleave unto him: for he is thy life, and the length of thy days; that thou mayest dwell in the land which the Lord sware unto thy fathers...” (Deu.30:19-20a)

I have had many dreams concerning my purse. In each dream, I had either misled my purse or it had been stolen from me. Because I carry my identity, money and credit card in my purse, the dream pointed out which of these things mattered the most to me in that particular purse. Often it was my identity. Looking back I saw that in each situation, I had been somewhere and let the position I was in set me back into my carnal ways of thinking. This is often what it means to dream of losing one's purse.

Daily, we are tested in this and often we respond to the challenge by seeing ourselves in the flesh rather than in Christ. We pick the ways of the carnal man to deal with the situations of our daily lives.

Daily, our inward man is faced with holding unto his Christ identity. “Therefore, if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.” (II Cor.5: 17) This is a strong word for us. OLD THINGS ARE PASSED AWAY...ALL THINGS ARE BECOME NEW. It is done in Christ and we need to meet the challenge daily.

I know that when I go to the store or speak to my neighbors, I am the old “Jackie” to them. We cannot try to persuade anyone that we are no more the person they once knew, for until the time when our change comes, I am still Jackie, and you are still who you were in the world.. But inwardly, we are not of the world and this is being engraved on our heart and in my mind. “..I will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it.” (Rev.2: 17b)

To day, these words are no longer letters on a page, they are reality in our lives. This is who we are in Christ. No one of the world will understand this, but we know in our hearts that it is true. Paul was in prison, but he did not say that he was a prisoner of Rome. Paul stated and knew that he was a prisoner of Jesus Christ.

He wrote to Timothy, “Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God; Who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus BEFORE THE WORLD BEGAN. But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.” (II Tim.1: 8-10)

It is obvious that this pure gospel of bringing life and immortality to light, has been warped and is now a gospel of “dying and going to an eternal heaven in a city somewhere in the sky.

Paul continues to identify his calling, “Where unto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles. For which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believe, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day.” (Vs.11-12)

Paul had an extreme life-changing experience with the Lord. He had been deeply involved in his pharisaic activities when suddenly and forcefully he found himself roughly thrown off his horse and blinded by a light brighter than the sun. At once, Paul's identify was changed into the one he was called to be from before the world began. For this reason, he could never doubt nor waver. His encounter and experience made him strong in the faith so that in spite of all his sufferings, he never looked back; he knew who he was, what his calling was, and who it was who had called him.

Paul did not convert to Christianity because of something he read or was taught; he converted because he met the Christ of God and felt the power of His might. His faith was established, his natural eyes had been diminished but his spiritual eyes were wide open and clear.

This is where we find ourselves. It is not the knowledge of the Scriptures that we have accumulated that is making us strong in the faith; it is because He has been revealing Himself to each one of us, in His own way.

In this current age, the Lord has been gathering His church and preparing her sons for the age to come. Her sons are the fruit of the Word that has been planted and cultivated in her by the Holy Spirit. In a previous study, we have seen that at the time of the end, the sons are caught up to the throne of God while the church is still facing the wiles of the devil in the wilderness.

Only the Spirit can reveal these truths for they are hid from the wise and the prudent. The wisdom of the world cannot understand the things of God for they are foolishness to them. God has purposely made them that way.

We have now reached the end of this age and the beginning of the next age. From what is taking place in our world today, it is obvious that it has already begun. The devastating calamities that have hit the world are proof of this happening. Jesus said that at this time, there would be great tribulations as have never been seen before.

When we see the devastation of the countries in the middle East at this time, we can think of no greater possible devastation for the people of these countries. The middle East is where civilizations began, and it is also where they end.

Jesus said that this time would be as the days of Noah. This means that before the devastation, a place of safety to preserve life has been erected. This place is the Body of Christ, the Sons of God or elects. They are the ark in which life itself, that is the Word who is the Deliverer is preserved.

These sons will sound the Word of life which will deliver the world from the death that would annihilate all flesh. “And except those days should be shortened, there should be no flesh saved; but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened.” (Matt.24: 22)

The ascending of the elects in power has been confused with the doctrine of “rapture.” This is not a physical ascending, but rather a condition where God's spoken Word has full power to destroy and to restore. God told Jeremiah, “See, I have this day set thee over the nations and over the kingdoms, to root out, and to pull down, to build, and to plant.” (Jer.1: 10) It was not the physical man Jeremiah who was given power to do any of these things, it was done by the Word he spoke. God changes not, His spoken Word today has full power over the nations and kingdoms of this world.

The task at hand for the sons of God is to follow in the footsteps of Jesus and speak only what the Father speaks. This subdues the kingdoms of this world and brings them under the authority of our Lord and his Christ (body). “The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever.” (Rev.11: 15b)

To understand this, we look at our own walk. By the Spirit and one by one, God has brought down the powers of the strong man who had power over us. This has taken time and many fiery circumstances. When God's King finally replaces the king that was the strong man in us, we enter the kingdom of God.

Now, the Father is sounding the Word that is bringing the world's powers down. The world was judged when Jesus died on the cross, and it is now coming into being. At the same time, resurrection came with Jesus, and it is now coming into being.

By the Word of God that the worlds came into being, and it is by His power that they are coming down. This opens the way to the thousand years (not literal, but an allotted time period) or what is called the "millennium". This is the time when the saints in Christ will rule and reign with Him.

"Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection; on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years." (Rev.20: 6)

All things that have taken place within us spiritually, were in preparation to what God will do through us in the age at hand. We are truly coming to a time of great change for the world we live in and this great change is a direct result of the change that has been happening within us.

God's great purpose at hand is summed up by Paul in these words, "That IN THE AGES TO COME he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus." (Eph.2: 7) We have been prepared for a work in the ages to come. This is the work of grace, given to the first-fruits in God's plan for creation. Paul was telling us that God's immeasurable grace continues through the ages to come and we as His church are the ones who will display and distribute that exceeding grace.

During the time period called the "thousands year reign of Christ", Satan is bound, but as soon as that time is over, he is loose again. "And when the thousand years are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison. And shall go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth., Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the SAND OF THE SEA." (Rev.20:7-8)

When the thousand years of the peaceful rule of Christ in the earth is over, there will still be nations or peoples who will resist God. They are called Gog and Magog. Satan's role is to incite them to battle. These are numerous for they are as the sand of the sea.

When God promised Abraham that he would multiply his seed, He explained, "I will multiply thy seed AS THE STARS OF THE HEAVEN, and as THE SAND WHICH IS ON THE SEASHORE; and thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies." (Gen.22: 17)

The seed of Abraham as the stars of heaven refers to those who have matured in Christ. "Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to thy seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed which is Christ." (Gal.3: 16)

Whether his seed has brought forth spiritual sons (as the stars of heaven), or whether it has been quenched in a people such as the sand of the sea (Gog and Magog), the seed still belongs to Abraham and it will arise through the hottest fire in its day.

During the thousand year rule of Christ in the earth, many of Abraham's seed who have been tested by fire will enter the kingdom of God. However the Gog and Magog nations will still stand against the Truth. Then, "Fire came down from God out of heaven (fiery Word of God from Christ in His body) and devoured them." (Rev.20:9b)

It is then that "..the devil that deceived them is cast into the lake of fire.." (Vs.10a). This is the final burial place of deception and of the carnal nature (beast). But through the seed of Abraham (Christ), they will be saved, though as by fire, and the devil, the false prophet and the beast (carnal mind) will be no more. The lake of fire is the end of all that has caused the death cycle to continue in the earth. Blessed be our God whose love is a consuming fire!

Because of His love, Jackie Caporaso
